

What's a Christmas Cracker?

A Christmas cracker is a cardboard tube wrapped in a decorated gift paper. It contains some riddles, jokes, a paper hat or a small prize. Crackers are similar to big wrapped sweets. It is a favourite used at Christmas dinner. Two people pull from both sides to split the cracker. It makes a pop sound and it is said that the person with the largest piece of the cracker keeps the gifts. It is very easy to make them and below you can see some crackers made by the pupils from 1 B y 2 C.
